

Test Cases for Tip Calculator.

1. Check whether the calculator takes input or not.
2. Check whether the bill amount in the calculator doesn't take alphabet value.
3. Check whether the number of people in the calculator doesn't get zero.
4. Check whether the user interface is user-friendly.
5. Check whether the calculator gives the precise value or not.
6. Check whether the text written on the button is readable or not.
7. Check whether the exit button closes the form.
8. Check whether the reset button is working or not.
9. Check whether the calculator is easily understandable or not.
10. Check whether the reset button on pressing deletes all the data.
11. Check whether the bill amount doesn't take a negative value.
12. Check whether there is proper spacing between buttons, labels, text boxes.
13. Check whether all buttons are accurately assigned.
14. Check whether the backspace button is working or not.
15. Check whether the calculator resizes itself according to the screen size.

16. Check whether the total tip per person can't be edited.
17. Check whether the total bill per person can't be edited.
18. Check whether the tip percent can be increased or decreased using numeric up and down.
19. Check whether the no. of people can be increased or decreased using numeric up and down.
20. Check whether the exit button works properly or not.